

Privacy Policy

The Moms Help Organization values your privacy. Although the Moms Help Organization compiles standard log files to measure the Moms Help Organization Site's traffic, users' e-mail addresses in these files are used only to monitor appropriate use of the Moms Help Organization Site. Moms Help Organization, Inc. does not share e-mail addresses or other personal information provided by Moms Help Organization Participants, Moms Help Organization Basic users, Moms Help Organization Clients, Moms Help Organization Partners, Moms Help Organization Providers, newsletter subscribers, and customers who purchase or subscribe to our products and services, except to the extent necessary to complete transactions. Information collected from log files and our users is utilized to improve the Moms Help Organization Site, products, and services and is not shared with other organizations or individuals.
